I love going camping with my family. We usually found somewhere lovely to set up our tents. Last month, we stay by a beautiful river. On the first day, we paddled boats and go fishing. We made our dinner over a camp fire. That night, the sky was full of stars and my dad tell us stories. The next morning, black clouds began to gather, and by lunch time, it was raining hard. We climb into our tents and lay back to listen to the sound of the rain. Even though it rained, we had a great weekend.
